WOMEN
ESCAPE
FLAMES

The big six-story wool warehouse at No. 324 Congress street was swept by flames at noon today, doing a damage estimated at $25,000.

FIREMEN AID WOMEN TO ESCAPE

Eight women and in many men, who were in the building when the fire started, fled down the stairs. Two of the women had to be assisted down the stairs by firemen. The fire, happening as it did at the noon hour, when many people were in the street, brought a great crowd of onlookers. Congress street was quickly blocked. Street clouds of smoke issued from the burning wool warehouse several firemen were partly overcome by smoke. Two alarms were sounded at the start. Then, after a half hour fighting it was feared that the flames were spreading to the basement of the adjoining building and a third alarm was sent in. The fire's origin is mysterious. The flames were first seen in the basement section occupied by Prescott and Company. The flames had gained a good headway before they were discovered.

Girls Shriek for Help

Most of the occupants had fled when the first division of the firemen arrived. There were two girls in the factory of the Prescott section, however. They were leaning far out of the windows shrieking for help. They did not dare to go down the stairs thinking the stairs were in flames. There were no fire escapes. Firemen rushed up the four flights and assisted the terror-stricken girls to the street.

By this time the flames were eating their way rapidly up the rear. The fire quickly spread to the section occupied by John T. Lodes & Company and by J. A. Williams & Company, both wool merchants.

Flames were shooting from the roof when it was discovered that the flames were making their way into the building occupied by the National Wool Warehouse, which adjoins the burned building. A third alarm was immediately sent in.

Fireboats then arrived. For their coupling both the Congress street and the Federal street bridges were opened. Traffic on either side of the bridges became clogged. Commuters coming into the South Station, nearby, added thousands to the spectators.

Fire Chief Mullins was in charge in Congress street, where was contained the big water tower. The saw gun hose was used there for the first time.

Fire Chief Grady with a band of firemen fought the fire from the roofs of

THIRD OF INSISTS
RUSSELL ON STAR
CASH LEFT CHAMBER

Only a small third of the $250,000 fortune left by the late Senator Daniel Russell of Missouri remains to be divided between the testator's widow, William T. Russell, and whomever of the two claimants the court holds to be the long-deceased Daniel's true blood. According to admissions made today by those in charge of the estate.

The other two-thirds have been used fighting the claims of Daniel's son. All that remains are two parcels of real estate—the office building, No. 128 Tremont street, opposite the Park Street Church, and the Russell mansion in the Wyoming section of Mexico.

The Tremont street property is mortgaged to the extent of $100,000 and report has it that the Russell home of some $100,000 mortgage, including real estate holdings and personal property, amounting to $100,000, having the gift-gift mortgage, has been offered to a private litigation said to be the most protracted and in many respects, the most remarkable in the history of the country.

Frederick H. Bailey, who is representing the widow, Mrs. William, insists that the ownership of the estate is actually for the statement that the Russell fortune "has been really donated by the claims of an individual."

Mr. Bailey stated that the total value of the Russell estate was $250,000. The inventory filed at the Middlesex District Court, October 8, 1905, represented the net estate of Senator Russell at his death. He declared:

"Cost $200 a Day." It seems a pity and a shame to think that a total stranger could step in and demand a fine fortune in this manner. I have heard it argued that it would have been cheaper for the estate to have made some sort of settlement with Daniel's heirs, but that would have been out of the question.

It would have given him a title to something that doesn't belong to him. We could never have got rid of him. Anybody else would have had the same right. It was necessary to get rid of him in order to get the estate back. It was not Senator Russell's money, but it was his. It was a lot of money.

The first story of one of the $100,000, but although the second hearing before the court was longer, it was not so expensive. I don't think it will cost more than $200 a day. The first time the estate was in the hands of the court, it was a great success. The estate was a great success. The estate was a great success.

Well, we had to have more witnesses from distant points the first time and the second time and other bills were tremendous. I don't think that the hearing before the court was a great success. The estate was a great success. The estate was a great success.

The list of those who want the $250,000 is as follows:

ATORNEY ROBERT M. MOHAWK, ATTORNEY AT LAW, 100 N. B. ST., BOSTON. GEORGE W. HALE, 100 N. B. ST., BOSTON.

Directors Fight Policy

The two forces are counsel for the bank directors. The other view are the directors. What is there about the case (they do not wish to become public knowledge).

The two attorneys have strenuously opposed the demand that the directors should have spent more than $100,000 in the case. The directors have been spending away money of the bank.

Director Harker only knows is that he cannot open the doors when one side objects that course. Director Harker says he had just as soon hear the toll on the outside.

The first statement is not by the question as to what is the real objection of the directors and their counsel? The directors have been spending away money of the bank. The directors have been spending away money of the bank.

Militants Ruin London Church by Explosion of Bomb

LONDON, May 6.—St. Catherine's Church, the parish church of Hatcham, in the southeast of London, was gutted by fire today and the outrage is placed by the police to the account of the militant anarchists. The edifice was well alight before the fire was discovered and the roof crashed in soon after the arrival of the firemen.

Following an investigation this afternoon the police were convinced that anarchists set fire to the church by using an explosive bomb. The rapidly with which the bomb spread indicated that it was a very powerful one. The police were convinced that anarchists set fire to the church by using an explosive bomb.

MISS ANNA CABOT IS NOW BETROTHED

The engagement was announced today of Miss Anna J. Cabot, a Vincent Club girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cabot of No. 447 Marlboro street, to Joseph Hoadley Coady, 3d, of Warren street, Brookline, member of the firm of Coady, Brooks & Rogers, consulting engineers.

The vicar told of seeing several women coming from the church before the fire. A bomb with fuse lighted was placed at the main entrance of the church at 2:30 a. m., and fired to the face was a black and white "Vater for Women" sign.

FIVE-VOLUME OFFER TO LAST TWO DAYS MORE

It is the desire of the AMERICAN to place a set of Encyclopedia's Cyclopaedia in the home of every one of its readers before the sale is withdrawn.

Everybody's Cyclopaedia consists of five volumes bound in English cloth and contains all the information to be found in similar books of reference. In addition thereto is a treasury of facts and figures showing unusual subjects never before treated in a similar work. From there is the chronological table of nations and events in the annals of the world from the very beginning of history. The entire work is profusely illustrated with accurately drawn text pictures, magnificent color plates and engravings which show the wonderful progress in architecture and invention. All of this in addition to the usual encyclopaedic details.

As a result of the largest book order ever given to a publisher the Boston AMERICAN gives its readers the benefit of the reduced cost. Next Friday and Saturday these sets will be distributed for $1.00 and one copy of AMERICAN guarantees to refund this amount by any reader who finds after receiving Everybody's Cyclopaedia that it is not entirely satisfactory and as represented.

All orders will also be filled, as explained in the coupon printed on the paper daily.

Why House Servants Are Scarce

Poor Pay and Long Hours for Girls

Office and Factory Work Attractive Because Sunday Is Free to Employees, Says Miss Beeks.

By far the greatest question confronting the household, not only of this city but of the entire country, is that of obtaining domestic servants.

The dearth in domestic servants stretches all the way from the country to the city. Employment agencies cannot begin to meet the demands on them for servants of all classes. And the comparatively few who are willing to do household work are invariably incompetent.

The little attention on the part of the employers to the servants' poor wages, poor accommodations, long hours and insufficient rewards for long periods of service are a few of the reasons given for the dearth.

Why are competent domestic servants so scarce and factories, offices and stores overcrowded by poorly paid young women?

Prefer Office Work.

Why does the demand for unskilled labor exceed the supply while too many women and girls are seeking employment for smaller wages than laborers in many instances receive?

There is probably no one better fitted to speak on the subject from various viewpoints than Miss Gertrude Beeks, secretary of the Welfare Department of the National Civic Federation. Miss Beeks says that the average girl would rather work in a factory or an office for smaller wages than are paid domestic servants.

Why? Because she has found that employment in a factory or an office, furnishing the girl with more hours of leisure in the evenings and on Sunday than is granted the domestic servant.

Here is what Miss Beeks had to say on the question.

"There is a dearth of domestic servants and it is not confined to any one city only, but extends over the entire country.

"The prime reason for this scarcity is because the girls who have to earn their own living prefer employment in the commercial and industrial fields rather than to engage as domestic servants. It does not surprise me to learn from the New York commissioner of labor report that the factory girls of New York, even out of employment, refuse to become household servants.

"The controlling reason why factory girls do not go into domestic service is that they prefer employment which will permit them to control their evenings and Sunday.

Lack Pleasant Quarters.

"It is also a fact that general household servants are not usually provided with the pleasant quarters. Those servants who are specially retained and who are assigned to special tasks and who are paid a special rate, of course, will exert for that. But factory girls and shop girls are not fitted for these positions. If they enter the domestic service they must go in as general houseworkers, which means that they must do the most disagreeable tasks and receive the least consideration from their employers.

"My first light on this subject came that was some years ago (how many, I really don't know) when I was then and I can understand to me when I was myself a factory girl of course, you couldn't expect me to stand how the girls in the mills and in the McCormick (wine mill at Chicago, 1913). But factory life of today is practically dead upon the subject.

Miss Gertrude Beeks, Secretary of the Welfare Department of the National Civic Federation, who says the average girl prefers to work in a factory or office rather than in households.

WAR VETERANS PUSH CAMPAIGN FOR MAINE FUND

The United Spanish War Veterans camps are pushing their campaign to secure funds to meet the additional expense incurred for the upkeep of the National Maine Monument, which will be dedicated at New York, May 30.

There is now a good natured rivalry for the honor place in the list of contributions. The Women's Auxiliary also is becoming interested, and the prospects of their meeting the men in this patriotic work are very bright.

The monument work is now progressing rapidly and five of the nine big pieces of heroic sculpture are already within the enclosure at Fifty-ninth street and Eighth avenue, ready to be slid into position at the base of the huge pylons. The most interesting work is attracting large crowds daily because it is seldom that work of this sort can be observed.

There is a shortage of $40,000, because while the fund amounts with interest to $148,000, the monument is costing $108,000. Of this shortage W. R. Harri, one of the members of the committee, has offered to give a dollar for every dollar raised by the committee, through any other source. He is giving a check to offset every check from camps of the veterans and all other subscriptions.

The National Maine Monument Committee makes an appeal to every patriotic person in the United States who feels that the hero deed of the battleship Maine should be honored to send a contribution.

The AMERICAN has received and transmitted to the United Spanish War Veterans Maine Monument Committee the following amounts, from local sources:

Presidents' fund.....	$210.33
Chicago, Detroit, New York, etc.....	30
A. B. Lord.....	5.00
Total.....	$245.33

REFUSE INCREASE IN IRON FREIGHTS

WASHINGTON, May 6.—(Proposed) advances in all rail and water rates on ground iron ore from points in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee to Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and other North Atlantic ports over railroads operating in this section were held not to be justified by the Interstate Commerce Commission today. The commission, however, allowed the roads to withdraw commodity rates on these shipments, leaving in effect a slightly higher rate. The proposed advances would have increased rates approximately 60 per cent.

HEROINE SAVES LIVES AT $3,000

ALLSTON FIRE

Mrs. F. O. Shedd was the heroine of a fire which endangered the lives of several persons and caused a damage of $3,000 in the three-story brick apartment house at No. 30 Harvard avenue, Allston, early today.

She discovered the blaze and aroused the others in the house in time for them to reach the street. The fire started in the basement and worked up through the partitions into the apartment of T. H. Bradley and his wife.

Bradley was awakened by the crackling of flames from below and saving his wife ran to the engine house in Harvard avenue to give the alarm, while Mrs. Shedd got the others out of the house. Besides the Bradleys and Mrs. Shedd, the first two stories of the six-apartment house were occupied by the Becherer and Haydon families, who were driven out by smoke.

PIRATES AND PIRATES OPEN SERIES TODAY

Pied Piper's swaggy lead of 1916 burgh Pirates will open their series with the Pirates at the Columbus avenue ball grounds this afternoon. The Pirates are in 5th place in the National League penultimate race, with an average of .526, leading with ten and lost nine games.

Before the season opened, Pittsburgh was picked by many to win the National League pennant. Like the Red Sox, Cleveland team lost its share of last year.

Jack Wagner, who is as valuable as three or four ordinary ball players, has been one of the great all-arounders. He took part in an exhibition contest against Cleveland yesterday, but it is not believed that he will take his place in the regular lineup until the latter part of the week.
George Gibson, the great Pittsburgh catcher, is at his home at Mt. Hermon, Catawba, where he is confident he has with a broken leg, which will not be in shape for four weeks at the very least.
The Giants have also been getting their lineup, and so far, it is believed that he has an excellent chance to lead the batting.

The Pirates had a training struggle at Brooklyn yesterday by the score of 2 to 5. They are playing today and it is believed that the team will win a win today.

PILGRIM BATTLE PITTSBURGH TEAM IN GAME TODAY

ARLINGTON OUT FOR HONORS IN RACE OF SPORTS

The prospects are bright at Arlington High for a speedy track and field team this spring. The track squad is working hard for the various meets in which the school has entered. Last Fall's undefeated cross-country team will furnish some fast men, these youngsters having shown marked ability in distance events.

They won victories over Medford High and the Harvard freshmen last Fall in dual cross-country races. They also won first places in the relay in which they were entered at Worcester Academy, where they defeated the pick of the schoolboy runners from Massachusetts and Rhode Island, the Mystic Valley League. The Arlington lads were again victorious in the New England championship at Brookline.

William McCarthy is coaching the boys and expects them to do well in this spring's meet.

In Capital Goldsmith, Arlington High has a special schoolboy mile race. In the State, this seventeen-year-old having the longest distance event in all of the cross-country runs he has endured last Fall, and also of defeating the field of picked runners in the mile event at the New England championships at Mechanics Building in February.

Crippled Red Sox Start West Infield Playing a Poor Game

By L. R. MURDOCH.

With a "paper" infield and without their manager or the services of their star pitcher the Red Sox left Boston to start a season of fortune in the west in a hopeful quest of fortune in the day and woe of West.

Perhaps a change of scenery and climate will do them good and justify their trip. Being of a practical turn of mind they certainly cannot expect to win the game, even though we think to the top of Yankee Hill and the top of Yankee telegraph, in a faithful endeavor to make upon the faintest ray of light sort of stuff which is not worth the western breeze if any vision were attained to the last scene there is an end. This is not meant to indicate that we fear the Sox will stay there for an summer. Far from that. But, being afflicted with myopia all we can speak of with any confidence are those things which lie near the eye. The short end of this Western trip is about all we can see just now.

A Whale of an Infield.

Jack Stahl will be in the hospital for two weeks, and it is very doubtful if he can join the team before it returns to Boston. It has never been made clear just why Steve Yarnall was taken out of the infield. But he's out—just can't dispute that. "Hinks" Wagner expects to get into the game in Cleveland and "Buck" Harris is expected to get into the game in Cleveland. If "Hinks" is out of the infield who can hit that record, indeed, you can let your best shooting star, but he's getting a little and throwing in a big end of that which has been where. Larry Gardner is still with the Old Guard. But the injured team has agreed appreciably to Larry's eyes.
Bosch Gardner can't just seem to play the ball where it belongs.

Little can be said derogatory of that good old outfield. Spinks is right in front, batting more than down and putting all that comes his way—pro-

Hitch Over Referee for Kennedy-Eagan Battle Thursday

There is a hitch over the referee for the Steve Kennedy-Eagan twelveround bout which is scheduled to be held at the Unity Club in Lawrence on Thursday evening. Eddie Mack, manager of Eagan, says that he will not permit Jimmy Burke, the club referee, to act as third man in the ring.
When Jim Burke, manager of Kennedy, will hold a meeting today and they may reach an agreement in regard to a referee. Mack says that he is willing to have Jack Sheehan, Matt Flaherty, Jerry Morris or Charlie White of New York referee.
Eagan is working for the bookie Mike Jennings' Highland Lake farm. He does road work each morning and boxes with Dave Brown in the afternoon. Kennedy is training at Lawrence.

Wood Out For Some Time.

Joe Wood cannot yet catch the ball with his pitching thumb. He is able to play around the field. But he can throw no fast and dependable curve, and what is most lamentable, neither Joe nor any body else can guess when he will last year to pitch again as he did last year.
"Buck" Harris is pitching in close to championship form. Give him a good infield and a team that will score three or four runs behind him and "Buck" is as good as in the top of the league. It is in traveling now, with him about his share of pennant reputation—that about seven in every ten games apparently.

Redden is in a similar state. "Tutch" Leonard is good for a reasonable number of games. But that's about all we can see just now.

Patent Cud is turning back the base stealers. But he is not hitting.

"Titch" Eagan is batting in the 300 class most of the time, but he does not score always. He is hitting the ball with a first baseman's mitt. He made an error yesterday that contributed to our defeat, and yesterday had a high three run ball, who made a marvelous throw in short right field because of this difficulty. Maybe Eagan might play a more

May be heard a city block.
It's a damned unpleasant feeling
When the team is going lane,
And the error bug is biting
Every gasser in the game.

WITH THE GOLFERS

By H. P. FARRINGTON.

Baseball players invariably stare in open-eyed wonder at the distance it is possible to hit a golf ball, yet the record for long hitting is not quite 400 yards.

Great Harrington is to have a new golf course. George A. Merritt, who laid out the grounds, has been buying streets the Breton Woods links and who is completing a new eighteen-hole course at Lake Champlain. It is charged that the work at Great Harrington, and promises something pretty fine. In the way of a course before this season is over.

Hotel Commodore is known as a sort of resting place for athletic teams of all sorts who are in the "Big City," has been housing a most mysterious and enthusiastic golfer. He has kept in practice throughout the winter by taking a strip of carpet and a club or two up on the roof, and there is nothing preventing his favorite game when the links were unfit for play.

Starting on a time schedule at both competitor in this match which is at Woolwich, and the system worked out to perfection Saturday when a recent match was completed in the manner,

Rock Ridge Hall Claims the School Baseball Title

The State Intercollegiate baseball title, which is being claimed by Everett High and St. John's Preparatory School of Desver, is also claimed by Rock Ridge Hall School of Wellesley Hills on the grounds that they have not been declared in the above games they have played this season.

Manager Leggett of the Rock Ridge team would like to help from the Everett and St. John's teams immediately in regard to a game. He is confident that his team is capable of beating either of the two claimants as all the Rock Ridge games were won by large scores.

Four members of the team, Captain Lou Morando, first baseman; Campbell, an outfielder; and Leggett, Leggett, pitchers, are hitting the ball for an average better than .400. The heavy workload of the Rock Ridge team has been one of the features of the game in which they have engaged this season.
Norwood and Campbell are two former Everett players.

UNION BOAT CLUB CREW IN FRONT

The Union Boat Club eight, which is preparing for a hard rowing campaign, had an exciting brush with the Stone School eight on the Charles yesterday.
Union gave Stone a five-length handcap and in the two-mile dash beat the schoolboys by two lengths.

NEW BEDFORD BOAT HALTED BY POLICE

NEW BEDFORD, May 6.—Thirty professors were present at the Elm Hill and the Boy Woodford Yale fight advice to take place. Chief of Police Mason in explaining the club's head as well as the police preventing this says that they have become a nuisance in the city.

Amateurs in Bouts Tonight Over 100 Boys Seek Titles

By JACK CONWAY.

Over 100 boys are entered in the national amateur boxing championships which open in Mechanics Building tonight. The trial contests will be held this evening, while the semi-finals and finals will take place tomorrow night.

House will be held at 108, 115, 115, 115, 145, 145 and 175 pounds and also in the heavyweight class. With almost all of the star New England boxers entered and with the leading boxers from Canada, New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans here to win the premier laurels in their respective classes, there should be some thrilling battles staged.

Harvey Snyder, the New England 106-pound champion, will be pitted against many star performers, and will have to do some wonderful work if he is to win the national title. Frank Pacey of Toronto is one of the best punchers entered in this class, and there are many who believe that he will become a winner.

Stars in 115-Pound Class.

The best boxing of the tournament will probably take place in the 115-pound division. The favorites in this class are Tommy Neenan of Boston, Boston, Canadian; Paddy Green, Canadian; Henry Goldstein, Toronto; E. Kooze, New York, and J. Correll, who also hails from the big village.

A host of good boxers will strive for the honors in the 115 pound class. Walter Hicks, Brockton; Daniel Burns, New York; W. Higgins, Toronto, and Johnny Nouan of Dorchester, are a few of the boys who are sure to make the fight.
Mike Sullivan of New England 115-pound title holder, has many supporters who believe that he will triumph in his class. Sullivan is a willing, aggressive fighter, and his head as well as his hands and feet. He will be pitted against some skillful performers but he

A Matter of Principle

In brewing PFAFF'S BEER there was a matter of business principle involved.

Whether we should continue to use the same high standard ingredients—in spite of increased cost—or to use cheaper ingredients and net more profit.

Every manufacturer of food products has had to face this question.

We did not hesitate. Our business principle is the BEST at whatever cost.

"BEST BREWED BECAUSE BREWED BEST."

We doubt if there is any BEER that will prove as genuinely wholesome and satisfactory to you as PFAFF'S BEER.

The only sure way to know about PFAFF'S BEER is to try it yourself.

Why Not Get What You Want?

When you want PFAFF'S BEER you don't want some other BEER.

You can get PFAFF'S BEER by asking for it at the same place where you have been getting other beers.

PFAFF'S BEER is as good a BEER as can be brewed.

Its taste is different from other beers.

We think you will like it.

The only sure way to know about PFAFF'S BEER is
to try it yourself.

A peculiar situation has developed in Illinois, where it has been discovered that the State automobile law is unconstitutional, and that the $600,000 now reposing in the State treasury, representing senting the license fees paid by the automobile owners, is held without legal warrant. It has been found that the main automobile law, under which the State licenses automobile owners at $1.25 much per horsepower of their machine, was not passed in accordance with the constitutional provisions.

"It is interesting to note," says Frank Wing, New England Distributor for the Marmon, "that the body lines of the foreign cars entered for the 500-mile event at Indianapolis are similar to nearly every detail to the body design of the Marmon six-cylinder car which won the first 500-mile race in 1911.
